Good News... Chocolate Ice Cream...

By Pastor Ken Studer

When I was 16 I started working in an ice cream factory. The factory made much more ice cream in the summer than it did the rest of the year. So the factory needed more workers every summer. I was available for work during the summer because I was not in school. I was on summer vacation.

I worked in the ice cream factory every summer until I got married at age 23. We made everything from ice cream sandwiches to half gallons to popsicles.

We were allowed to eat all the ice cream we wanted while we were at work, we just couldn't take any ice cream home without paying for it.

By the time I quit I knew how to work all the machines. I felt like I could run the whole operation. One of my jobs was to put popsicle sticks into the popsicle molds. One summer I decided to count how many popsicle sticks I put into the popsicle molds. It was over a million!

I learned a valuable lesson working there. I learned that I did not want to work there the rest of my life. College was going to be in my future.

June 7 is National Chocolate Ice Cream Day. I used to make chocolate ice cream. I knew how to make it.

I used to take all the unwanted leftover liquid ice cream that was never turned into a frozen yummy dessert and put it into a vat. It was first strained to get all the fruits and nuts out and then the chocolate was added. The mixture was then turned into chocolate ice cream. That may not be the way chocolate ice cream is made today, but that's how we did back then.

The imperfect unwanted stuff was turned into a delicious dessert!

The way I used to make chocolate ice cream reminds me of how the Holy Spirit works. The Holy Spirit takes our imperfect worthless mixed-up lives and mixes Himself in and we become a delicious treat.

The Holy Spirit can make something out of nothing and that's really Good News.

Women's Tea

On Sunday, May 22 Orange Coast Church women enjoyed the OCC Tea. This year the tea also featured a brunch at the Rapp home in Orange.

Barbara Studer gave a devotional based Ephesians 3 and her recent trip to Hawaii. More than 20 women participated. All had a good time and want to repeat the event next year.
